SILLY MEMORIES FROM THE SENIORS

1. "Last year, the team went over to our coaches house for team bonding. We ended up putting on dress clothes and danced around her living room. It was super hilarious and really fun." -Sydney Burns 12
 2. "One time after practice, Savannah puked in the gym and Kayla fell in the puke." -- Jenkins 12
 3. "Karsin asked our coach Morgan if she could sing the National Anthem at our Spring Show. Without hesitating Morgan said 'No' then, she turned around and asked Sydney if she would sing it. It was quite comical."- Kenzie Johnson 12

Look like a beauty TOSS LIKE A BEAST

1. Sabrina Reed, 12, snaps a selfie before competition with Elizabeth Bradbury, 11, Kimmy Galahere, 10, Madison Keffer, 10, Emily Keffer, 12, Ryan Palm, 12, and Hannah Balcamp, 11. These girls have formed a lasting friendship over the years.
 2. PCM colorguard received a Division I rating at state. Sabrina Reed, 12, Kimmy Galahere, 10, Elizabeth Bradbury, 11, Ryan Palm, 12, Hannah Balcamp, 11, and Emily Keffer, 12 are proud of their overall performance.
 3. Sabrina Reed, 12, Emily Keffer, 12, Liz Bradbury 11, Ryan Palm, 12 at state competition.
 4. Senior co-captains Emily Keffer and Sabrina Reed head off the field with Ryan Palm 12, Liz Bradbury 11, and Hannah Balcamp, 11. The girls have to come up with their own routines and must all be in sync which is a very difficult task.

"We had an issue with our shirts this year. The word colorguard was spelled colorGAURD and we weren't able to get them fixed. We'll just have to wear our jackets because the front looks fine. It takes a lot of extra time and effort to be in colorguard, but we always strive to be the best at competitions." - Sabrina Reed, 12

KARSIN JENKINS, 12

"I am so proud of my team and how hard we have worked this season."
