"My favorite trend lately has been layering my clothes. For example, I have been wearing a turtle neck under overalls. I have also been loving pairing an all neutral outfit with pops of color."

-Junior Abbie Nunnikhoven

"I think that camouflage is a cool look despite the inevitable, 'dude I can't see your body; it's invisible!' joke. I also like how retro Jordan's are coming into style in Pella because I've been collecting them for a while."

-Sophomore Dawson Lee

"My favorite trends that have been going around are backless loafers/mules and tortoise pattern items. Lately, I have also been loving pairing pinks and reds together."

-Senior Makayla Thompson

How To Build An Outfit?

Two opposites describe how they put an outfit together.

Senior Selena Quangvan

"I would describe my style to be edgy. I always lean towards neutrals. When putting an outfit together, I love pairing black distressed jeans with tops that are statements, whether it's two-toned, mesh, distressed, or printed. I also love adding small details to outfits like belts or necklaces."

Junior Claire Corbin

"I'd say my style is a mix of the 70s and 90s. I love to wear colorful, unique pieces that are a little out there. When putting an outfit together, I usually start with mom jeans and a turtle neck. Then I like to layer it with a colorful tee."

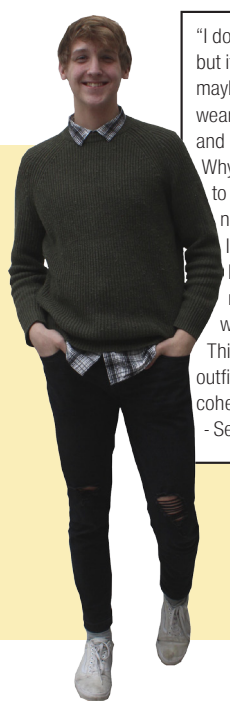

"I'm not sure what I would call my style, but people tell me I dress like a hood rat, so that's what I'd have to go with. I like to wear clothes that look worn out, like ripped denim jeans or a dirty pair of Vans. My inspiration is to just be myself. I wear what I wear because it's what I like, and it's how I express myself."
-Sophomore Jackson Neil

"I aim for my style to be mostly bohemian with a little classic, vintage thrown in there! I love to wear big, colorful clothes and lots of denim! I am inspired by stores like Free People. I love altering clothes that I find at thrift stores or tie-dying."
-Junior Olivia VanderLeest

"I don't have a specific style, but if I were to choose, maybe street casual. I just wear things that interest me and make me feel happy. Why limit yourself? I like to pick out items that are nice and comfortable! I go for neutral colors because they can be mixed and matched with a lot of things. This makes it easy to put outfits together that look cohesive."
-Senior Jake Grundey

"I like to wear clothes that are either modern style or pretty vintage. I have to admit that I do follow a few look books on Instagram, but they give me great ideas. Going to the thrift store is always a good time for me, but I also shamelessly love American Eagle."
-Freshman Hannah Tschetter

"My style is a mix of chic 80s mom and trendy Forever 21 employee. I chose my style based on things that bring me joy. If I see it and it makes me happy, I'm probably going to wear it with confidence."
-Sophomore Hanna Kendall

"I would define my style as boho/hippy chic, inspired by one of my favorite celebs, Vanessa Hudgens. I enjoy thrifting to find many vintage pieces to add to my wardrobe for a good price."
-Senior Elle Feucht

"I would say my fashion choices would be more modern. I usually will pick out things that I like even if I don't think it will be for me. Trends that I really like to follow are skinny jeans and or anything that is fitted to my body, while tops I like to be loose."
-Junior Kaleb Nguyen

"My style of fashion is a basic wear in most cities. I would consider my style to be street casual. My favorite thing to wear is Royal Kings merch; it's soft and comfortable. I like to keep things simple when it comes to clothes."
