It's time to make a change...

We asked Megan Grubb how she lent a helping hand this year and this is what she had to say: "From Sept. 22-Oct. 1, I spent time in the country of Ethiopia in the eastern part of Africa. I traveled there with six other people, most whom I knew from my church. I was able to visit some sponsored orphanages and devote my time with many of the children housed in them. I absolutely enjoyed all the time I spent with them in their country. My favorite part was going to one of the smaller orphanages. I got to dedicate my time in a room with about 20 little kids who couldn't have been more than two years old. Being given that opportunity to show God's love to kids who don't get to see that every day was just truly remarkable."
