

Sophomore Alyssa Grout is eating her fruit loops and trying to finish her homework, while doing her makeup, all at the same time.

Junior Makayla Baker is at home dreaming of all the little fishes in the sea until she has to get up for school.

Freshman Emma Baker is sitting in algebra taking notes, while wondering when she will use this after high school.

Sophomore Valerie Egenberger is in Modern World History thinking about what kind of history she will make.

6:00 a.m.

7:30 a.m.

10:30 a.m.

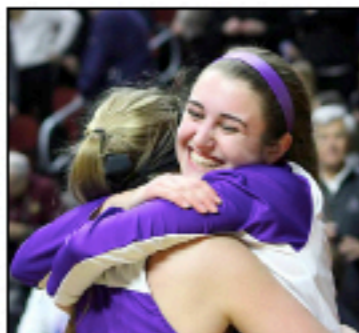

12:50 p.m.

Shooting and scoring

Senior Grace Berg dives after a loose ball in the first round game at State. Grace Berg broke a new record by scoring 1,784 points in her whole career. The girls won their first-round game against second-seeded Cedar Falls by one point.

Sophomore Bailey Blake celebrates with junior Maggie McGraw after a nail-biter win against Cedar Falls. When asked what was going through her mind when she hugged Maggie, Blake said, "It was an amazing feeling, and I got this rush of enthusiasm to go on to the semifinals."

The Indianola girls varsity basketball team went into the 2018 State Tournament having a record of 20-3. The girls won their first game by beating a one-loss Cedar Falls Tigers team, 64-63. When asked what it felt like to beat the number two team in the state, senior Ellie McCoy said, "Winning against the number two team at State was nothing but a bunch of emotions exploding! I had complete faith in my team to pull off the win, and we did. It was one of the most exciting days."

Junior Maggie McGraw shoots critical free throws in the game against the Cedar Falls Tigers on Monday, Feb. 26. McGraw did not miss a single free throw in the game. When asked what was going through her mind when she almost didn't make her final free throw, McGraw said, "It was so nerve wracking knowing that if I missed this shot, it would be the only factor of whether we won or lost."

Freshman Madison Connett is "in health looking forward to the end of the day."

Sophomore Reili Jones is "staring at the clock waiting for the bell to ring."

Sophomore Sarah Biellelt is "watching my favorite tv show of all time."

Freshman Brianna Phelan is "usually on my phone checking social media."

2:00 p.m.

3:00 p.m.

7:00 p.m.

10:00 p.m.

Indianola girls basketball competes in the semifinal round at State

Senior Liza Lathrum squares up with the hoop before she shot and makes a three-pointer. "Even though we lost to Iowa City West, it didn't change how we are as teammates," Lathrum said. "We win as a team and lose as a team—that's how team sports go. There is no 'I' in team. I definitely couldn't ask for a better team, either."

Junior Maggie McGraw begins an offensive play in the semifinal game against Iowa City West. Despite a tough loss, McGraw said, "It was pretty hard losing to Iowa City West, but it was a fun season, and I didn't expect to get that far."

During the senior night game on Feb. 12, Madie Sorensen achieved 1,000 points. Even though the Indians lost to the eventual Class 5A champion at State, Sorensen said, "We started the year off rough, but it was special because it's my senior year, and we didn't think we would make it that far."

The girls wait on the edge of their seat for the next good play in their game against Iowa City West. "We all really wanted to go on, and the game wasn't falling the way it had on Monday," Rachel Riebhoff, senior, said. "It was especially hard for us seniors to say goodbye to our long basketball career with Indianola and our teammates that we got close with."

Wanna see something cool?

1. Download the HP Reveal app,
2. Create an account,
3. Type in school name (select search to find),
4. Follow IndianolaYearbook,
5. Hover your phone over the photos with the basketballs, and watch them come to life!