

AND ONE

AND ONE. Junior, Tyreke Locure goes up for a lay-up during a tough game versus the Hoover Huskies. Photo Credit: Laura Christensen

THREE

THREE. The varsity boys basketball team stands holding up three fingers when a teammate shoots a three-pointer along with the rest of the fans. Photo Credit: Mya Alexander

DUNK

DUNK. Senior, Debo Kallo gets the crowd going wild with a dunk during the game against the Hoover Huskies. Photo Credit: Mya Alexander

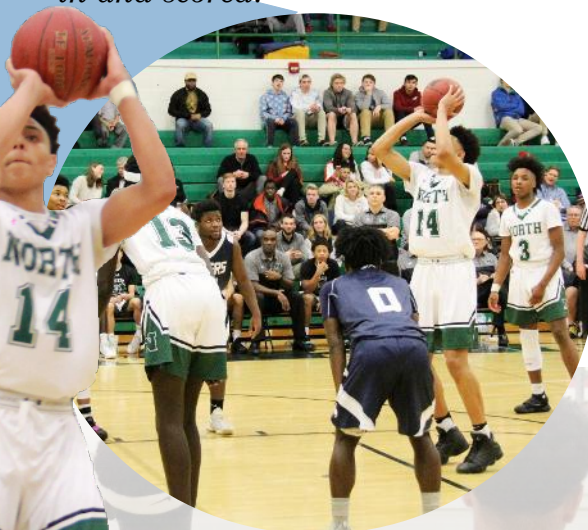

JUNIOR

Tyreke Locure

"The best part about this season was seeing, no matter who played, all the support behind us and how the fans took the games as serious as we did."

SENIOR

Jaihon McCaleb

"I wouldn't have wanted to play my last high school game with any other group of players and coaches."

DAY 62: MIX IT UP. Group one of Polar Bear Crew bakes pumpkin pies before Thanksgiving Break to donate to Chuck's Restaurant along with Wells Fargo volunteers. (@PolarBear_Crew)

DAY 63: TWO WORDS. While waiting for the pies to bake, group two plays charades. (@PolarBear_Crew)

1900
262
342
412
51

Points
 Tyreke Locure scored 675

Steals
 Debo Kallo had 48

Free Throws Made
 Tyreke Locure made 158

Assists
 Gatdoar Bijiek had 73

Blocks
 Debo Kallo had 15

Theresa Sanchez

Eventful ... 10

TOGETHER. Freshman and sophomore teams play against Ottumwa at home. Both teams have shown prosperous progress throughout the season and many also play on varsity. Photo Courtesy: Chad Ryan

ON THE WAY. Freshman, Malik Allen makes his way up to the basket with a lay-up against Sioux City West. Even as a freshman, he has excelled greatly on the varsity team. Photo Credit: Mya Alexander

HIGHEST SCORING GAMES

VS

103

79

VS

94

56

VS

105

76

FEATURE. Chad Ryan talks about what he is most thankful for in the Des Moines Register. (@DM_North)

TAKE THE COURSE. Gym students get to enjoy an inflatable obstacle course set up by National Guard recruiters.