

IN THE SPIRIT

With the BOOT and SPIKE locked in the trophy case for the year, the football and volleyball teams snagged two big victories over City High, continuing a rivalry that has not lost its EDGE in 50 years. "The City/WEST game is a very emotional and passionate game," wide receiver Traevis Buchanan '18 said. "Both teams want to win for the CULTURE and history of their programs." As Homecoming week rolled out, temperatures pushing 90+ degrees forced the cancellation of Powderpuff and Manball. Nevertheless, students and alumni beat the heat Sept. 22 to cheer on the TROJANS and celebrate 50 years of memories filled with pure GOLD. "The game was incredibly special to me because it was [the seniors'] last Homecoming game," Hannah Luce '18 said. "It really put into perspective how fast high school flies by, and how much we should CHERISH every moment."
