

"I LOVE MY MOMMY"

Junior Connor Pellett introduces his mom as his escort during the King and Queen Contest. Pellett was a finalist and the question he pulled out of the silver bowl was a question that required him to sing his favorite song, "The Down Easter Alexa" by Billy Joel.

SMILE PRETTY

Senior Heather Freund waits for the Queen and Princess to be announced. "The King and Queen contest was a great experience. It helped me prepare in interview scenarios, but it allowed me to have fun with my peers at the same time. Overall it was a very memorable experience of fair," Freund said.

Senior Cody McCreedy was crowned the Cass County Fair Prince for 2017. "It was shocking that I was selected but it was a really good time. I enjoyed handing out awards to little kids because of how excited they got to receive their award," McCreedy said. This was McCreedy's second time participating in the King and Queen Contest at the County Fair.

HOLDING cass county fair COURT

Photo Credit: Katie York

DYNAMIC DUO

Senior Heather Freund and 2017 graduate Ashley Freund are members of the 2016-2017 Youth Council. The Youth Council introduced performers during the Share the Fun program. "Working Share the Fun was a blast because you could see everyone's unique talents and you get to make the show even more memorable to them," H. Freund said.

FUTURE SPEAKERS

Sophomore Alyssa Brockob participates in Extemporaneous Speaking. Brockob was one of two people that participated in this contest. The other was Junior Connor Pellett, and both advanced to State. "It was an amazing experience that really helped in further developing my communication skills," Brockob said.