

Crisp. Cool. Crunchy.

1) Family fun Sunday finds junior Samantha Queen stopping for a cut-out photo opt at Country Corner in Alpha, Illinois. Photo by Christie Queen

2) For fall spirit, senior Jessica Lund, sophomore Mikey Williams, and junior Danni Krum pose with the pumpkins. Photo by Emily Jones

3) At Blossom Farms, junior Emily Jones checks out all the fall merchandise. Photo by Mikey Williams

Favorite Fall Memories

"My favorite fall memory happened when I got to help a little kid pick out a pumpkin at a pumpkin patch," said freshman Mackenzie Kaperka

Fall feeds students its tricks & treats

While many students raked leaves, others tossed them above their head to celebrate fall activities such as homecoming and bonfires. Likewise, many students created their own caramel apples, others chomped on the ready-made ones to bite into the season.

1) Ariana Hill & Lilliana Cordona Courtesy Photo

2) Owen Stieger, Treavon Clark, Dayshia Hall, Te'Ayla Humphrey, Katelyn Caves, Caitlyn Saldana, Bri Wood. Photo by Hailey Purdy

"My favorite fall memory happened when I got chased by a scarecrow in a cornfield," said junior Bryan Verdon.

"My favorite fall memory happened when I spent 3 hours finding the perfect pumpkin for my mom to the point that I didn't find myself a pumpkin," said junior Julia Kopp.

Photo by Miles Byrd