

A Night of Murder,

Hoover Drama presents 13 Past Midnight

About the play: Producer of a popular T.V. soap opera Victor Winslow invites members of the cast and crew to his mansion for a party. Winslow informs his guests that they would be playing the new murder mystery game he invented called “13 Past Midnight.” But before the game begins, the host gives the players ample motives to want to kill him for real.

Mystery and Comedy

Louise Burke. Junior Melissa Pardock is an avid member in the Hoover drama program. She played Louise, an old lady who feared losing her job. "My favorite scene is when everyone tries to kill Victor," Pardock said.

Toni Crawford. Sophomore Sage Johnson has been involved in theater since she was nine. This was her fourth production at Hoover and she loves every one of them. "My favorite scene is when every character was trying to commit murder and ran into each other," Johnson said.

Maureen O'Malley. Sophomore Porscha Lambert played an angry cook. She loves the theater community and the friendship it has to offer. "My favorite scene is when the lights go out and you can hear everyone shouting," Lambert said.

"My favorite part of theater is spending time with people who share the same passion"

Callie Garcia, sophomore

"It's so much fun to be a part of something so many people put so much effort into"

Ripley Miller, junior

"There is nothing else like theater at Hoover"

Enrique Avila, sophomore

"The people in theater make you feel like you belong. That is like my place where I know I can be myself"

Syeda Asad, junior
